

NEW!

SiR Learning Systems Ltd

In partnership with The FENC

announce the launch of

EDUlearn

their e-learning portfolio to the schools sector.

This includes:

Selected learning resources for the 14 to 19 sector and an Online Central Curriculum Development Area
Via your own
Intranet account on our Hosted Web Server

Each school will have their private account of learning resources and accessible from any Internet Browser to all staff and learners whether they are in school or at home.

Launch these effective learning resources, or add your own folders, upload files, add web links, create or edit lesson plans we have included as part of complete 32 week schemes of work

These 'Blended Learning' resources can be presented in folder structures of your choice:

National Curriculum
Vocational Learning
Further Education

Learning content available covering 73 subject areas and levels
Amounting to 30,000 student learning hours of resources

These resources include complete programs, web based tutorials, assessments and lesson plans

Learning content can be easily found using the integrated search engine

As it suggests, this is a true community facility that enables and encourages collaborative development of learning partnerships between schools and colleges and employers
'reducing duplication and putting a stop to the reinventing of the wheel'

Contact us now if wish to be part of this new network of schools and colleges.
